DETAILED ACTION

This Reasons for Allowance action is in response to the Request for Continued Examination in regards to the filing of amendments submitted 06/11/2007.

Allowance

1. Claims 1, 5, 9, 13, 17, & 21 have been amended with written arguments which overcome the examiner's prior rejections and objections, see paper of 06/11/2007. Examiner withdraws all outstanding rejections and objections to claims 1-24.
2. Claims 1-24 are allowed.

Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance

3. Prior art was found which disclosed a system and method for authenticating block level cache access on network, where the network uses the iSCSI protocol, a cache device discovers new clients and servers, authentication ticket, and a login request including a client ticket (e.g. Hetzler et al., US-7134139-B2).
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
5. The prior art of record does not teach or render obvious the limitations as recited in independent claims 1, 5, 9, 13, 17, & 21 specific to the, "prohibiting send target discovery sessions as a system administrator option" and "determining whether a payload of said iSCSI login request contains a "SessionType=Discovery" key/value pair" and "when discovery sessions are disabled and said iSCSI login request contains said "SessionType=Discovery" key/value pair, rejecting said iSCSI login request" and "configuring discovery via supporting protocols external to the iSCSI protocol" and "providing a setting to individually enable/disable at least one of discovery sessions SLP, iSNS, ICMP, SNMP" and "when said discovery session, said SLP, and said iSNS are all disabled providing a warning that an initiator must be statically configured to locate a target on an iSCSI entity." Dependent claims 2-4, 6-8, 10-12, 14-16, 18-20, & 22-24 are allowed as they depend from an allowable independent claims.

Therefore, the Examiner considers the above recited independent claim limitations as the non-obvious novelties of the invention.

6. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
